Jerash and Old Amman

Once part of the Roman Empire, Jordan is home to a legacy of Roman architectural treasures.

Just outside the city is the extremely well-preserved ancient city of Jerash, dating back 6,500 years and considered one of the best examples of Roman influence in the Middle East.

After exploring this historic site, enjoy lunch at the award-winning Lebanese House Restaurant, which offers a unique atmosphere.

In the afternoon, tour Amman's Old City neighborhood with its rolling hills, historic sites and colorful markets. Afterwards, browse a sweet shop and sample Kanfeh, an ultra-creamy Middle East dessert.

SATURDAY, MARCH 6
Amman - Dead Sea - Petra

Venture west to Madaba, "The City of Mosaics," known for its famous mosaics - beautiful reminders of the Byzantine era.

Afterwards, visit the Dead Sea, one of the world's most intriguing natural wonders. Situated at approximately 1,500 feet below sea level, the Dead Sea is one of the world's saltiest bodies of water, and its healing waters have been sought after for more than 2,500 years.

After lunch at a seaside resort, enjoy some time to relax and go for an easy swim or float, due to the natural buoyancy because of the high salt content of the sea.

Afterward, head south, arriving in Petra in the early evening.

Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner included

The Petra Moon Luxury Hotel in Petra offers a 5-star experience with a rooftop swimming pool, spa facilities, fitness center, terrace, restaurant, and free WiFi.

After breakfast, explore the ancient city of Petra, the "Rose City."

Visit the Sig, a narrow passageway nearly three-quarters of a mile long carved into sheer rock walls. While the Treasury is the most well-known ruin in Petra, it's not the only one.

You will also see the 4,000 Spectator Theater, the Courts, Qasr Bint Pharaoun, Temple of the Winged Lion and other monuments.

After lunch at a local guest house, head to Wadi Rum with its red-pink, stunning natural arches and mountains and prehistoric rock engravings. Often referred to as the "Valley of the Moon", it is a romantic and timeless place.

Enjoy a Jeep tour and traverse the unique desert landscape, featuring dramatic sandstone and basalt mountains, making it one of the most beautiful deserts.

Return to Petra and experience an authentic dinner at a Bedouin tent. Discover the fascinating culture of these nomadic people who have lived in the desert for thousands of years.
